Each of our clients gets the choice of one song, that is not in our repertoire for us to Arrange and perform. Please note that some songs just don't work with strings, so we may ask for something more doable! If in doubt just ask, it's only ever a problem if the genre is very obscure.

If we're doing the ceremony for you, this maybe the processional or recessional.

Recessional

If we're doing your ceremony – the key songs are the ones you'll be in the room for. The Bride's aisle walk (otherwise known as the processional) is the most important one. Let us know if you need a separate song for the bridal party. The recessional is usually an upbeat positive energy song. For the signing of the register you usually need about 2 songs to fill this small period. Many of our clients use the quartet in the ceremony and bring the beatboxer in for the reception as a surprise.
